CORALLES TEAMS ARE PLACED AT FOREMAN'S ORDER

Victor Rollin, a member of the Coralles road committee, has sent word to John S. Heaven, chairman of the Bernalillo county road board, that the following will provide teams for the 100 team days of work on the Alameda-Coralles road stretch which the Coralles people have agreed to furnish: Tomas Montoya, Meliton Garcia, Santiago Griego, Jose R. Tenorio, Victor Rollin, Antonio Ignacio Martinez, Jesus Lopez, Luis Chavez and Jesus Gutierrez. County Road Foreman Leonardo Bonick is to advise Eugene Verner, Santa Fe road commissioner, when he wants teams and how many on each day. Teams will be supplied as desired and designated by the road foreman.

LINING 'EM OUT

St. Louis big league clubs might try a pacific blockade of the Fed park.

As an alternative they might try giving the fans something to look at in the way of a baseball game, themselves.

It has rarely been tried in St. Louis.

Kansas City Federals, in suing Earl Hamilton for jumping back to the Browns, says he is "a great drawing card." Now they can file an amendment to the bill, saying he is a bigger drawing card than ever.

Texas busily engaged in raising money for a silver service for the battleship Texas. Inasmuch as the punch-bowl will be useless under Secretary Daniels' white ribbon proclamation, they might hold that piece out and ship it to Jawn McGraw. He has enjoyed many a good punch and has several coming.

Christian Science Monitor is running a series of articles on "National Golf." Author is the first man who ever considered the possibility of such a thing.

France has decided to stop boxing bouts between women. The next thing is to stop them totting guns.

In comparing Ray Keaton, his big spital artist, with Ed Walsh, Frank Chance says:

"No one has to tell you what I think of Ed Walsh," said the leader of the New Yorks. "I ought to appreciate his value. I saw him enough in the world's series of 1906 and later in the city championships we played with the White Sox out in Chicago. But just listen to this: Walsh never in his life had such a fine spital as Keating showed you should have heard Sweeney growling. Why, Ed's hand was puffed up from catching it. There is no reason why Keating should not be a second Walsh, if he behaves himself. He certainly has the physique."

If the wet weather keeps up, maybe the Federals will not be such a thorn in the side of the big fellows, after all. Big leaguers have a lot of money set aside for a rainy day.

Kalamazoo has a player, named Zula Zilth. But no Kalamazoo: feels justified in poking fun at him.

"It is difficult," observes like tanager, "to see how the Federal league will make itself a major league circuit by raiding St. Louis clubs."

In Killefer, Dooin and Burns, the Phillies have the most powerful single set of backstops in commission.

Some of the experts are figuring that this is the year Marty O'Toole, the Pirate's $25,000 beauty, is due to show. He has had time in which to shake the jinx that hangs about the over-touted, and stands a chance to enjoy the experience of Babe Marquard, who looked like a lemon for a considerable while after he was snapped up by the Giants, but had the satisfaction of wiping the recollection of that almost out.

"Joe Tinker," says Matty, "is a remarkable ball player. I never saw his nerve broken in a uniform."

Joe Leonard, third base recruit with Pittsburgh, is only 20 years old. Two years ago he gave up high school and joined the Des Moines club in the Western league, where he made good.

The ancient vocation of town crier, which went out of vogue more than a century ago, has been revived with the opening of the baseball season in Baltimore, and brought up to date.

Lefty Shields, a husky young man with a deep baritone voice, will be seen throughout the summer in the business district of the city announcing time and scene of play of all important games. In fact, he is on the job now, and pedestrians are startled suddenly on the quiet business streets when they gaze on Lefty as he belows out his announcements through a gigantic megaphone.

STATE SEAL IN GOLD GIVEN AWAY AS CHARM WITH TUXEDO TOBACCO

For the benefit of the men of New Mexico, the American Tobacco company has had made a special set of dice from which our state seal is issued in 14-karat gold plated medalion form, suitable for use as a watch charm, either upon chain or fob.

These state seal medalions are beautiful examples of the jeweler's art, and will be enthusiastically sought after. Not only are they in the highest of good taste for the well dressed man, but they also symbolize the state pride and patriotism of the man who wears one of them.

The Great Seal of New Mexico shows a Mexican eagle grasping a serpent in its beak and the cactus in its talons. Protecting this small eagle with its spreading wings stands a large American eagle grasping arrows in its talons. Below on the scroll is the motto "CRESCIT EUNDO" and encircling the entire seal are the words, "Great Seal of the State of New Mexico, 1912." This detail is brought out by heavy embossing on the watch charm.

Get your Tuxedo at once, in order to take advantage of this generous special offer. Remember, a 14-karat gold-plated watch charm, representing the state seal, is given with a 5c pouch of Tuxedo.

THREE MORE SUITS/FIGHTERS HARD AT GREAT SPRINTERS READY TO FILE WORK PREPARING TO MEET ON COAST IN NEW YORK FOR BATTLE THIS MONTH

Federal League Will Have to Defend Damage Actions for Grabbing Off Players of International League.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
New York, April 17.—The legal complications that have beset the Federal league since the advent of the Federal league are soon to be added to. Within a few days it is announced the International league will start proceedings against the Federal league for taking several of their players who had accepted terms. The Jersey City, Montreal and Rochester clubs will sue.

WILLIE RITCHIE A 10 TO 4 FAVORITE FOR TONIGHT

Little Champion Has Long Lead in Betting on Off Postponed Battle With Harlem Tommy Murphy.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
San Francisco, April 17.—Willie Ritchie's youth, punch and the fact that he is the champion have instilled him an overwhelming favorite at odds of 10 to 4 for his 20-round fight tonight with "Harlem Tommy" Murphy.

The lightweights are said to be in the pink of condition and the fans are expecting a grueling contest. For eleven years Murphy has been battling doggedly for a chance at the championship prize. Twice within the last year the opportunity was almost within his grasp, but on each occasion a mishap, first of weather conditions and then of an injury to Ritchie prevented the encounter.

The experts consider it high time for Murphy to have his go at the championship as he is now nearly 30 years old which is far along as the prizefighter's ages are reckoned. Ritchie has hardly reached the flush of his career, his admirers point out. He is credited with great skill and a stout heart and the ability to land a wallop of knockout force.

Murphy's friends believe that he will be clever enough to avoid Ritchie's sleep producing punches and that he will come through a victor on points. The betting is even money that the New Yorker will last out the long battle.

Both fighters were reported today to be well within the weight stipulation, 125 pounds. Murphy was down last night to that mark and Ritchie, it was said, tipped the scales at 124½.

SIX HIGH SCHOOLS TO SEND TEAMS TO MEET

The Deming, Las Vegas, Tucuman, Belen, Santa Fe and the local high schools will have teams in the intercollegiate track meet to be held at the University of New Mexico on April 25. Other schools unable to make up a team will send one of two contestants. The silver trophy which will represent the championship of the state, must be won three years in succession to become the permanent property of a school.

MISS WILSON WILL WED MR. McADOO ON SEVENTH OF MAY

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
Washington, April 17.—The president and Mrs. Wilson announced today that the wedding of their youngest daughter, Miss Eleanor Wilson, and Secretary McAdoo, would take place on Thursday, May 7.

Schaefer and Torres Are Putting in Every Minute of Their Training Time at Painstaking Conditioning.

Director Mark Levy announced this afternoon that he has been unable to secure Elks' theater for the Schaefer-Torres battle next Wednesday night and the fight therefore will be held in the theater the following Thursday, evening. The demand for seats already is brisk and Levy believes that he will have sold every seat in the house when the going rounds. Schaefer and Torres have been dickered for this match for months, each certain of his ability to handle the other man, and with heavy side bets in question the battle is certain to be one of the most interesting ever fought here.

Harry Schaefer settled down to stiff training at the New Mexico A. C. gymnasium last night in preparation for his meeting next Wednesday with Jack Torres. He intends to work out regularly, intent on developing the last ounce of energy and power. He regards the fight as a crucial one and means to train as carefully as if the title of world champion depended on the outcome.

Torres began his heavy training work at the New Mexico gym. He yanked the weights until they yelped and punched the bag to a frazzle, after which he took on Jim Stewart for four rounds of sparring. He will work with Stewart again this afternoon, and also with Bob Graham, the clever heavyweight.

In his workout last night Schaefer boxed with Al Hawkins, a lightweight who is here looking for a match, and with Young Sam Langford. Tonight Schaefer will box Langford and Lefty Floyd.

WINNING DOGS ARE FINEST IN THE WORLD

Siberian Wolves Driven by John Johnson in Great Alaska Sweepstakes Said to Be Most Valuable in Existence.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
Nome, Alaska, April 17.—The Siberian "wolves" driven by John Johnson which won the $12 million Alaska sweepstakes dog team race in 1914 in a remarkably well conditioned condition here last night, are considered by experts the greatest racing dogs in the world.

They are a cross between the "husky," the Alaskan working dog, and the Siberian wolf. They have the agility and endurance of the wolf and the faithful intelligence of the Alaskan dog. They are light in color, either white or grey, with a shaggy coat.

Johnson's dogs are carefully selected, the driver himself making annual trips to the east coast of Siberia to obtain material for his team. He trains his team by constant work on the trail, making long trips to camps in the country surrounding Nome, and watches the work of the animals even more closely than a jockey watches his mount.

Although this is the first time Johnson has won a sweepstakes race since his team set the record four years ago, he has always been considered a dangerous competitor. Three years ago he was beaten by "Scotty" Allan after he was stricken with snow blindness at Mile 282.

Two years ago he was unable to drive, being ice bound on the Siberian shore, where he had gone in the early fall to obtain fresh dogs, and last year he finished second to Fay Delaney, who did not enter in this year's race.

Mrs. Eaton Dead.

Greeley, Colo., April 17.—Mrs. Rebecca Eaton, widow of the late B. H. Eaton, former governor of Colorado, died at San Diego, Cal., last night, aged 75, according to word received today.

Sanitary

The "Simplicity" Sweep Clean is not alone a labor saving feature but it is also solving the question of HEALTH; no matter how hard you try, you can't clean house with a broom and brush, for by far the greatest amount of dangerous, germ laden dust and dirt settles deep in the warp of carpets and rugs, in curtains, in upholstered furniture, in the cracks and crevices of floors and woodwork where no broom or brush can reach.

WHY then is it the electric vacuum cleaner is a sanitary appliance?

BECAUSE it sucks up this hidden, dangerous dust with magic speed and absolute thoroughness.

Its work is a delight to the careful housekeeper.

See it work in our windows.
